Note Continued :-

The Dy Commissioner was asked* to furnish the required information

In reply, he ⊗ states that a sum of Rs 6-8-3 only was drawn from the Savings Bank and disbursed during the months of June, July & August 1900, in accordance with the revised Lusdik Patti; and that no amount was drawn during the succeeding months, as, in the meanwhile, some of the residents of Nagithulle objected to the interest on the Saving Bank amount being credited

* In his office Docket-no 679 dated 6th October 1902.

⊗ In his Docket-no 352 dated 25th January 1903.

He further reports that the excess in the revised Scale of Lusdik allotments remains undisbursed and the cost of Establishment continues as previously

The revised Lusdik Patti framed by Government, directed that the scale therein fixed should be brought into force with effect from the 1st March 1900 - But, it is now understood that the final order was not carried out till about June 1900. The cause of delay has not been explained. The Dy Comr He now simply reports that the revised scale was brought into force for only 3 months Viz

Viz June, July and August 1900 and not afterwards, because some of the residents of the village objected to the interest on the Savings Bank Deposit being utilized towards the Establishmentcharges - as directed in the revised Patti. The Dy Commr could have then and there brought to the notice of Govt the obstacles then brought forward and obtained their orders. Instead of doing so, he remitted to the absurd Secretariat method. He has not even now explained
